

VERDENSLYD

- a residency program working around folk music

OPEN CALL

Exclusive residency at The Garden Studio in Djursland, Denmark from the 29. July – 4. August 2024. For upcoming musicians in the North, with a wish for diversity in cultural background. You can apply as both a rhythmical and a classical musician.

If chosen for the project, the residency offers

- 7 days project in the countryside facilitated by professional artists
- Collective creative processes and networking with fellow musicians from around the North
- Experience of cross-aesthetic methods
- Accommodation
- All food and drink
- Performance-fee for concerts

HOW TO APPLY

Please send a video with following to kontakt@vildvaerk.dk:

- A short presentation of yourself
- A traditional piece of music from your native country – played and/or sung by you on your main instrument (or) a traditional instrument.
- A poem from your native country read by you in your mother tongue
- Deadline : 15. of April 2024
- Fee if accepted : 135 euro

The residency will focus on a collective process of creating music together around traditional folk music and poetry brought by the participants from their home country. We will have 5 days intensive process + three days of concerts on venues in respectively Djursland & Aarhus presenting our work

Verdenslyd will take place in the countryside of Djursland in Denmark at the beautiful place The Garden Studio – a place where artists come and work together and present their process and art. See more at www.thegardenstudio.dk

For more information

<https://vildvaerk.dk/verdenslyd/>

